Briefing is complete in this case, B281406, but not in B286138 (Truck Insurance Exchange v. Smolker) and B287626 (Smolker v. Home Savings Termite Control, Inc.). Appellant has asserted in this case that the same issues arise in all three cases. Accordingly, the cases will be considered together, at such time as briefing is complete in all cases. " The Court is of the tentative view that the trial court did not err in granting the motions to dismiss. The only issue to be addressed at oral argument is the procedural issue arising from the dismissals; the merits of the case are not at issue at this time, and the Court will not entertain argument pertaining to those issues. Consistent with the April 6, 2018 order, each side shall have a maximum of 30 minutes of argument time in this matter. Respondents shall advise the Court prior to argument how they intend to divide their time, and appellant shall advise whether he wishes to reserve any portion of his time for rebuttal.
